

Terry's Day

Kim McCann leads a 'warm-up' for the participants before the walk begins.

Members of "Terry's Team" lead off the 30th anniversary Terry Fox Run on Water St., Port Perry. More than 400 people participated this year, raising an amazing $27,775 for cancer research.

A beautiful September morning greets a large turnout for the 30th annual Terry Fox Run

They're off! Young and old, on foot, bikes and strollers head out on the 10 km walk.

Terry's Team members, Jim Smitherman, right, and Reg Phillips at the start of the 2010 Terry Fox Run.

Wow! Terry's Team members are jubilant as they hold high a poster showing $732,327 has been raised in the Scugog Terry Fox Run since it began in 1993.